PREPARING FOR THE RETURN OF 'MOTHER' JONES

She Goes Back To Trinidad. She Will Not Be Deported Again, But Imprisoned

Denver, Jan. 5.—Preparations were begun today by union officials for the return of "Mother" Mary Jones to Trinidad and other points in the southern strike zone where she was deported by state troops yesterday, and while these plans were making here, Adjutant General Chase, according to report to Governor Ammons, had given orders in Trinidad and Walsenburg, that her appearance in any portion of the strike region would result in immediate imprisonment for her under the incommunicado rule of the military authorities. Deportation, said General Chase this morning would not be attempted again, as the action of the military authorities yesterday was merely to warn the labor agitator that her presence in the strike region would not be tolerated.

Gov. Ammons this morning was of the opinion that General Chase considered he had a good cause for his summary action in ordering "Mother" Jones deportation, and that he would in all probability, take no action in the matter. It was known that Adjutant General Chase from the first day of military rule in the strike region, had declared that Mother Jones and agitators of her kind would not be permitted to visit among the strikers or to make speeches at any town directly affected by the strike. He took full responsibility for her forcible ejection and remarked:

"And if she comes back we will have a nice little party for her."

Ammons previously had stated his disapproval of her methods.

Union Leaders Indignant

At union headquarters here there was much indignation on the part of labor leaders, who declared it an insult to women that Mother Jones the angel of the camp, should have been manhandled by troopers and insisted that she would return to defy the military authorities. Mother Jones herself, went to a hotel immediately on reaching Denver, late yesterday, and there told of the outrage perpetrated on an old woman by the soldiers. She was equally insistent that she would return to the proscribed region, but

POSITIVE PROOF

Should Convince the Greatest Skeptic in Logan

Because it's the evidence of a Logan citizen. Testimony easily investigated. The strongest endorsement of merit.

The best proof. Read it: William Currell, expressman, 891 North Sixth East street, Logan, Utah. Says: "I was never seriously troubled with kidney complaint, but last spring I suffered from sharp pains across the small of my back and kidneys. The trouble was brought on, I believe by heavy lifting. I knew that my kidneys were at fault, as the kidney secretions were irregular in passage and contained sediment. I finally began taking Doan's Kidney Pills, as I had learned of their merit while living in London, England. I procured my supply at Ritter Bros. Drug Co. and they helped me at once. One box removed the backache and made my kidneys normal. I am the same strong friend to Doan's Kidney Pills now as when I recommended them some time ago. The cure they made has been permanent."

as any citizen of the United States has the right to do so.

It was announced today that Gov. Ammons would be asked to act sternly in connection with the deportation not only of Mother Jones, but of several strikers from the northern district, and he failing, said union officials the federal government would be asked to investigate the matter on the grounds that the state was standing idly by and seeing the provisions of the United States Constitution set at naught.

Advise Strikers To Arm

Union leaders have openly advised all strikers to arm themselves in order that they might resist any attempt of deportation and the threat that Mother Jones will return to Trinidad under protection of the strikers and union men, has caused the fear that a clash between the authorities and the strikers is imminent.

Mother Jones was expected to speak at Trinidad tomorrow, and at Walsenburg the following day. It is those engagements which she insisted this morning that she would fill.

GOV. FERRIS OF MICHIGAN WILL CONDUCT INVESTIGATION

Calumet, Mich., Jan. 5.—Facing another investigation of the strike situation, this time at the hands of the governor of the state, company managers and Western Federation of Miners leaders today prepared to open up every avenue of information which the state executive may desire to explore. At the same time both sides to the controversy were dubious as to the ability of Governor Ferris and State Labor Commissioner Cunningham to find any lasting solution of the trouble.

May Be Too Late

The most general opinion was that signs of further activity in federal circles, especially in regard to the deportation of Charles H. Moyer president of the federation were responsible for the governor's determination to visit the district. It was pointed out that the governor spurned every invitation to come here when the strike started last July and had manifested little intention since of projecting his personality into the strike situation. Some union sources in fact said that the time in which he could have accomplished anything toward settling the strike had passed long ago.

At least one phase of the controversy remains for the state executive to work on. John B. Densmore, of the federal department of labor failed to end the strike after he had first learned how far the union would go and then had tried to persuade the companies to meet it. So far as could be learned the employers have never been asked officially to give their last word and the governor may find some unsuspected field for effort in that quarter.

Those who advanced this thought, however, were willing to concede in the next breath that there was little likelihood of the employers receding from their stand that only men who would renounce all affiliation with the union would be received as workmen. A continuance of this policy constituted a stone wall so far as union sentiment is concerned.

Additional Workmen

Additional workmen were reported as having enlisted with the company this morning. One coach load of non-union men reached the Quincy mine from Chicago and the management of that mine announced that almost as many more of their former men had turned in their union cards and had gone back to work. Several mines said they had received visits from volunteer workmen who had come to the copper country of their own volition. The possibility that these individuals might be union agents made the managers hesitate in hiring them.

The case of union printers employed on Tyomies, the Finnish Socialist paper whose editors and other employees were named in warrants recently issued has been taken up by the typographical organization. The typesetters were charged with conspiracy to publish statements inciting to riot as were the editors, reporters and business managers of the paper. It was said that the international union will be asked to call the attention of Washington authorities to this case.

Still another side of the strike that is being inquired is the charge that foreign workmen brought into the mines in ignorance of the strike, have been forced to remain at work.

It was learned today that the consul general of Austria Hungary had delegated an attorney of Ironwood to look into these reports.

FEDERAL EMPLOYEES MUST NOT ENGAGE IN POLITICAL ACTIVITY

Washington, Jan. 5.—The danger of political activity on the part of any member of Uncle Sam's vast army of employees, either in the classified or unclassified service of the civil service commission is emphasized in an announcement made public by the commission today.

Violations of the laws preventing federal officers, or employees generally, from engaging in political work, the commission declares, will not be countenanced.

A copy of the warning has been ordered furnished every person appointed under the civil service rules and in order that the executive departments may be assured that none has been uninformed, a blank receipt is attached. This is to be signed by the individual employees and submitted to their respective bureau chiefs who in turn are ordered to forward it to the departments for purposes of record.

CANNING FACTORIES ANNUAL REPORT

The output of the twenty-nine canning factories of Utah for the season of 1913 reached the enormous total of 951,128 cases, or 22,816,176 cans, according to the annual report which has been prepared by Secretary H. L. Herrington of the Utah Canners' Association and vice president of the Utah Canning Company. This is an increase over the 1912 output of approximately one third, the record for the 1912 season being 650,000 cases, or 15,600,000 cans. The poor showing last year was due largely to the partial failure of the tomato crop.

According to Secretary Herrington the 1913 output of the Utah factories represents the best season in the history of the canning industry in this state. Practically all of the 1913 product has been marketed and the majority of the canners contracts for the 1914 crop of tomatoes has been signed. Every indication at this time points to another season as successful as the one just closed.

As might be supposed, the tomato pack for the 1913 season exceeded by several thousand cases the pack of any other vegetable. The official report of Secretary Herrington shows the combined pack of all Utah factories to have been as follows: No. 2 tomatoes, 3,561 cases; No. 2 1-2 tomatoes, 602,645; No. 3 tomatoes, 4,400; No. 10 tomatoes, 12,828; No. 2 peas, 190,760; No. 10 peas, 2,561; No. 2 string beans, 15,100; No. 10 string beans, 4,855; No. 2 1-2 catsup, 4,482; No. 10 catsup, 36,461; No. 2 1-2 pump kin, 947; No. 10 pumpkin, 526; No. 2 1-2 fruits, 14,325; No. 10 fruits, 29,722; miscellaneous, 28,000; total cases, 951,128; total cans, 22,816,176.

Of the twenty-nine factories in the state the Ogden plant of the Utah Canning Company is the only one which is operated during the year. During the tomato and fruit season the company also operates two other factories one at Brigham City and another at North Ogden. Preparations are now being made to pack pork and beans, hominy, sauer kraut and other special canned products.

HONOR THE AMERICAN HEN

Of all birds the great American hen deserves the greatest honor. Twenty years ago she required assistance from the hens of the world in order to meet the American demand for her products. Today she not only supplies the American market but is a big factor in supplying the world. Moreover, the great American hen turns out a more valuable article than her foreign competitors; for we received on an average 21 1-2 cents a dozen for the eggs we exported and only paid 15 cents a dozen for the few we imported.

The great American hen's products find their way all over the world, the exported eggs going principally to Canada, Cuba, Mexico and Central America, but many of them finding their way to England and Scotland, thousands to South America and a good many to the islands of the Pacific ocean.

All of which goes to show that the great American hen is not only one of our greatest domestic institutions, but one of world wide consequence. So let us all do honor to this great contributor to the world, and see to it that we have more hens on our farms and thereby contribute to our own happiness, pleasure and profit, as well as to the balance of the world. For she surely is a great producer and money maker, so honor should be bestowed upon the American hen.
